GroundSure Homeview – Planning

GroundSure Homeview – Planning is a report which provides planning intelligence data in close proximity to the study site in relation to planning applications (home extensions), planning applications (projects) and mobile phone mast data.

The report is broken down into two sections – Overview of Findings and Details of Findings (including maps) – making the report extremely user-friendly for the reader.

Key Features

The report provides clear and concise information based on datasets within 3 areas (0-25m, 25-250m and 250-500m) as follows:

- Planning Applications (House Extensions) - Have any House Extension Planning Applications been identified in this search?
- Planning Applications (Projects) - Have any Project Planning Applications been identified in this search?
- Mobile Mast Data - Have any Mobile Masts been identified in this search?

Ensure Your Clients Are Protected

GroundSure Homeview – Planning will enable the prospective purchaser to make an informed decision about their potential purchase.

GroundSure Environmental Consultants are available to discuss the findings of reports free of charge and thereafter have full capability to provide further consultancy support to ensure environmental risks are effectively and commercially managed to the best advantage of the client throughout the course of a transaction.
