Buyer Protect Reimbursement Scheme

Buyer Protect Reimbursement Scheme

Moving home is often perceived as one of the most stressful events in someones life.

Today more than ever, the process of moving requires significant capital outlay and sometimes through no fault of your own things can go wrong, potentially meaning you could well be left significantly out of pocket.

As well as the cost of purchasing a property, there are associated costs that form part of the process. You will need to pay your solicitor for a number of searches, arrange for a survey on the property, plus there may be non- refundable fees payable to your mortgage lender such as mortgage arrangements, product and booking fees.

As a benefit of your solicitor processing your orders through Searches UK this unique scheme will be offered to you, Please request this scheme is added to your search order otherwise you will not be covered by this protection.

Our reimbursement scheme will protect some of the associated costs that you may incur when purchasing a property should the purchase fall through.

Maximum reimbursement amounts:

- Up to £500 in non-refundable, mortgage lender arrangement fees, mortgage broker fees, product and booking fees
- Up to £750 in valuation fees (homebuyers, structural surveys etc.)
- Up to £800 in solicitors fees and disbursement costs

We will reimburse you if your purchase cannot proceed for the following reasons:

- The mortgage lenders survey or valuation on the property identifies that rectification work needs to be carried out, the cost of which exceeds 5% of the sum you have originally offered or values the property less than 90% of the sum you have offered for the property and which has been accepted.
- The mortgage lender applies a retention on the mortgage for the property and this figure exceeds 5% of the sum you have offered and which had originally been accepted.
- The property sustains damage during the period between offer and exchange of contracts where the total cost of rectification work exceeds 5% of the property value.
- A Local Authority search highlights that the property is:
A. The Subject of a compulsory purchase order; B. In a flood plain;
C. On contaminated land; or, D. Over a mining area;
and you decide not to proceed with the purchase of the property.
- You or the person who is buying the property with you: die and the survivor is unable or unwilling to continue with the purchase; are given a notice of redundancy and you are unable or unwilling to continue with the purchase; are given notice of relocation and you are unable or unwilling to continue with the purchase; or, you are diagnosed with a terminal illness and are unable or unwilling to continue with the purchase.
- The property is withdrawn from sale by the vendor due to reasons beyond your control.
- The vendor receives and accepts an offer from another buyer, which is a minimum of £1,000 greater than the offer they previously accepted from you and you are not prepared to increase your offer
- The vendor is not legally entitled to sell the property or transfer interest in the property to you.

There are a few circumstances however where we will not reimburse you, these are:

- If one of the aforementioned events happened before we are instructed.
- If you are subject to a contract race, auction or sealed bids.
- If you are buying a mobile home, caravan or any other type of non-permanent dwelling.
- If you withdraw from the purchase of the property for reasons other than those specifically covered by this guarantee.
- If you deliberately and knowingly cause a delay or behave in a manner that results in the failed purchase.
- If the purchase has not exchanged within 12 months of being registered with us.
- If you are aware of a previous survey having been carried out to the property up to 90 days prior to the start date, that may give cause for the purchase to fail.
- If you are aware, prior to the start date, of any circumstances which could lead to a claim being made under this guarantee.
- Where you can be reimbursed by your employer or obtain a refund, from the lender or solicitor.
- We will not reimburse a mortgage arrangement fee if you still use the newly arranged mortgage on the next purchase.
- In the case of redundancy we will not reimburse you if you are self-employed, if you have taken voluntary redundancy or if you are a company director or partner of the company giving notice or redundancy.
- We will not reimburse you if you provide false or fraudulent information to us.
